

Following the recent Independent School Inspectorate (ISI) Inspection in October, the whole school is delighted to receive the highest judgements in all outcomes. The week-long inspection explored all aspects of St Faith's but the two key focuses were pupil achievement and personal development; both were ranked as excellent by the inspectors. The report echoes the outstanding effort and passion displayed by staff and governors over the recent years.

It is extremely pleasing that so many aspects of life at St Faith's have been highlighted and recognised as excellent. These outcomes recognise the strength of our community and are a testament to the exceptional quality of teaching and learning at St Faith's, as well as the achievement of our pupils. – Dr Crispin Hyde-Dunn, Headmaster
