

Year 7 and 8 Charity Tuck Shop

The children are already working hard to raise money for their chosen charities this year. Although they have not yet finalised the charities for which they are going to fundraise, their enthusiasm for these important social outreach activities is evident. We wish all the pupils and staff well in their charity commitments and endeavour this year.