

Digital Parenting Magazine

Forty copies of the magazine 'Digital Parenting' are available, on a first come first served basis, for parents to pick up from outside the School Office. This excellent magazine, published by Vodafone UK, includes articles on promoting digital resilience, protecting your family from cyber crime, digital health and safety tips, managing children's screen time and online peer pressure.

A twice-termly e-safety bulletin, written by Mr Mitchell, the Head of Computing and Digital Learning, appears in the Headmaster's Weekly Newsletter. The latest article alerts parents and pupils to the importance of using secure passwords.
