

Important Information for Parents of Children leaving St Faith's this July

You may wish to make a note that your access to the VLE, and that of your child, will cease as soon as the children leave us on the final day of term (7th July). Thus, if you were thinking of downloading any pictures, of a production for example, it would be wise to make time to do so before then.