

Volcanic Creations

We love hearing of the highly creative methods our teachers use to inspire and enthuse our pupils around given topics. A wonderful example is the Year 7 Geography project on volcanoes where the children were asked to make models of a volcano (inside and out) using the materials of their choice. As you can see the breadth of creativity was quite staggering and in some cases mouth-watering!

