

Primary Mathematics Challenge

We have just heard that our three top scorers in last month's Primary Mathematics Challenge have been invited to take part in the bonus round, which will be held in February. 68000 pupils from almost 1700 schools took part in the challenge and so congratulations go to Ava Birmingham, Elizabeth Hutton and Ewan Smith for making it through to the next stage.

Mr P Kite
Head of Mathematics