

Year 4 Topic - Settlement

To complete their topic of settlements and using ordnance survey maps, the children in Year 4 took advantage of the glorious sunshine in order to further develop their map skills. The children created a huge set of gridlines on the chequered mat, and used symbols to represent services and features on their map. Then using their directional skills, Year 4 had to navigate their way to the correct destination!

