

Playground Equipment

Just a reminder that playground equipment is not supervised by staff outside of school hours. Children playing on the equipment before/after school and during holiday periods (when not taking part in a planned holiday activity) therefore play at their own risk and should be supervised at all times by a parent, carer or guardian.