

The Leys Choral Society

Calling all singers! The Leys Choral Society will be resuming next term – an exciting choral opportunity for parents, staff and friends of the school. St Faith's parents are warmly invited to join The Leys during the Lent term only to sing Fauré's magnum opus 'Requiem', with a public performance on Saturday 23rd March in The Leys Chapel. Under the baton of Director of Music, Max Kenworthy, this promises to be a fun and rewarding experience for adult singers of all levels of competence, although the ability to read music will certainly be an advantage. Rehearsals will run weekly on a Tuesday evening from 7pm-9pm in The Leys Music Department Recital Hall, beginning on Tuesday 8th January 2019.

If this invitation is of interest, please come along or contact Max Kenworthy directly for further details: mgk@theleys.net
