

House Music

Last Friday, House Music Competition finalists performed to their houses in House Assemblies. This gave pupils the opportunity to hear soloists performing in school. It also gave the finalists renewed confidence about their performing. It was wonderful to see how supportive pupils were of the soloists and how attentively they listened to the performances. There will be further performances from finalists today in the House Assemblies.

Mr Gorick
Director of Music