

THE OXFORD & CAMBRIDGE SINGING SCHOOL

The Singing School was established in Cambridge in 2013 to provide children and young adults with the opportunity to sing great classical music with world class coaches in a relaxed and fun environment and to develop their confidence and ability in singing and performing.

Two courses are available this Christmas:
Junior course for ages 7-12
Senior course for 12-17 year olds

Pupils will learn some beautiful seasonal music and at the same time gain a background in vocal technique, music theory, music appreciation and history. Families are most welcome to come and listen to an informal concert at the end of each day.

What: The Oxford & Cambridge Singing School Christmas Courses 2019

When: Thursday 19th & Friday 20 December 2019

For: Children aged 7-17 year olds (two courses available, one for 7-12 year olds and another for 12-17 year olds).

Where: St Catharine's College, Cambridge

The repertoire will centre on sumptuous festive music by Peter Warlock, Thomas Ravenscroft, John Joubert and John Rutter plus some traditional favourites.

Courses are for children and young adults who love to sing and are devised to include choral singing, singing lessons in small groups to focus on developing vocal technique, music appreciation, music history, music theory in the form of games and exercises - all to improve their general musicianship, technical ability and confidence. Great feedback is received from families who say how much their children have enjoyed The Oxford & Cambridge Singing School's courses and how it has helped to develop their confidence and ability.

Children will perform an informal concert at the end of the day, to which family are warmly invited to attend.

For those who aren't familiar with the courses, here's a little video of what they do
