

Eco Committee Competition

The Eco-Committee invite you to enter the Young Vets Club's School Competition.

Design a creative cartoon strip about Ekari, an elephant who became orphaned when her mother was taken by poachers.

Prizes

The winning design will be brought to life by professional artists in the form of a cartoon strip. This will then feature in the summer 2020 edition of the Young Vets Club magazine. This will be distributed around the country to all the schools that entered and to all of our members. The winner and the school will also receive a framed copy of their story to keep.

The top five entries from each school will be awarded a free, one-year membership to Young Vets Club. This prize is only available to the first 50 schools that enter the competition.

This competition is open to all students in Years 4 to 7

All entries must be submitted on the official A3 design template which you can collect from and return to the Hub.

Entries should be submitted to Miss Gamble by the end of Tuesday 4th of February.

For more information, please see Miss Gamble or the reference material on the Eco page of the VLE.

<https://i.stfaiths.co.uk/campaigns-and-activities/young-vets-club-competition->

Best of luck! We look forward to seeing your entries.

Miss Gamble and the Eco-Committee