

Bring Back The Girls

A concert featuring Carissimi's biblical tale of Jephthe and his daughter

Arlette Overman (Pre Prep teacher), Simon Brown and Celia Cobb (St Faith's peripatetic teachers) will all be performing at Robinson College Chapel on Saturday 14th March at 7pm in a concert to raise money for the girls of the Mathieson Music School. They will be joined by Anup Biswas, who ran some magnificent music workshops for the children at St Faith's last year.

The girls of the Mathieson Music School are hoping to return to the school once a female only building is built (a necessity due to new government regulations).
