

St Faith's Library Book of the Week

A. M. Howell's debut novel was The Garden of Lost Secrets. It is a deliciously enchanting tale that has been loved by many readers and longlisted for the Branford Boase award. Fans of the novels by Emma Carroll and Robin Stevens will be delighted by her latest book The House of One Hundred Clocks.

Helena and her parrot, Orbit, are swept off to Cambridge when her father is appointed clock-winder to one of the wealthiest men in England. There is only one rule: the clocks must never stop.

Soon Helena discovers the house of one hundred clocks holds many mysteries; a ghostly figure, strange notes and disappearing winding keys... Can she work out its secrets before time runs out?

This story is a joy to read. It captures the heart with many poignant moments of friendship, family, hope, and moving on. It has all the traits of a classic story with a brilliant ending to satisfy readers of all ages.

Click here to read an extract from the first chapter!

13/03/20