

Year 4 Task 4 TV Commercial

Trivia pursuit TV advert

In a village called Melbourn there lived a brother and sister called Maya and Dilan. They were really excited because their cousins were coming to stay for half term.

As time went by, they got more and more excited! When the day came, they hurried down stairs and opened the front door. They all rushed inside and started to look for something to play with.

They wanted to play a board game but all the ones they had were for 2 players only and their cousins were different ages compared to them. They were disappointed. Sad music is played in the background.

Then they asked their parents if they could go to the shop and find a new game. When they got there, they ran to the board game section and found a game called Trivia pursuit camera zooms in on game to the slogan:

A family game to test your brain

They all looked at each other and agreed that it was perfect. They went to the counter and bought the game.

The final scene is when they got home. They encouraged the parents to join in because the box said cards for adults too! They LOVED it!! Happy music plays.

My TV Commercial

The new cheetah BMX, it really is fast as a cheetah! It also has a seat as comfortable as soft pillows.

Rex is a 8 year old boy who has found the Cheetah BMX bike on a poster, he would really like one.

Rex begged his Mum and Dad for the amazing cheetah BMX, and gave some reasons why he would like it. The Cheetah BMX also comes in many different bright colours! ☺ wheels have got lots of grip on it is safe, as well as being fast.

Rex's mum and dad did not want to buy him the bike as they thought it was too expensive. Once they had looked at the poster and seen the price, it was not as expensive as they thought.

After seeing the price of the Cheetah BMX, and realising it was only £599.00, Rex's Dad and Mum let him have the Cheetah BMX for an early birthday present. Rex's Mum and Dad also decided to teach him how to ride a bike.

Rex, his mum and dad went to the shop to get his new bike. ☺ come along and get one quick, its selling out over the world! For just £599.00!

In 1844 another in the highest shop is an old book long the pages are all torn and the leather cover has dirt all over it. It is nearly new in the shop.

Nobody would be long to make a little girl wishes in with his father and mother through next to the wall and finally it was out to the door. The children wanted to

When the girl found the biggest to read her heart. Nicholas Nickleby by Charles Dickens was sent from the woman's girl when the best was written

The next day hundreds of children came to buy the book. There are many thousands of copies for sale. The shop is selling 100 books to 1000 new little girls.

Camera shows a pretty but small back garden.
Birds singing. Start to hear children talking.
Narrator says "Bored in lockdown?"
Then getting louder is children saying "we're boooooored"

Now there is slow music in the background. Two children are sat on the sofa looking fed up.
Kids say together : "we're bored. Mum."
Boy says "We can't play football or tennis or any ball games really. There's no space for our bikes.
Girl says "The garden is so tiny and we can't go out in lockdown."

Mum says : "Don't worry. I'll sort something out"
Shot of Mum at her computer.
The camera does a close up of the mum when she says to herself : "PogoStix! Perfect!"

The next shot is of a smiling post lady coming round the block.

The music is light and happy.
The postlady is muttering to her self: "This is a big one!"

Next shot is of the children playing in the garden on their new pogosticks.
Mum says "now you have a toy for the tiny garden."
Kids say "we love them!"
Happy music in the background.

Commercial ends with the slogan
Have fun anywhere with pogostix!
