

Year 5 Independent Research Homework

William in 5L has shown brilliant curiosity and independence this week by deciding to spend his independent research homework finding out more about Emma Raducanu. The class have really enjoyed listening to his research and finding hearing from William during their tutor time this week.

