

Year 7 pupil, Reuben, has challenged himself to row a half marathon on Saturday 12th February to raise money for The Early Learning, Entebbe, Uganda. Reuben's mum, Hannah, has set up a charity called Kickstart Coffee which supports orphaned and disadvantaged children at the school.

Reuben started learning to row at St Faith's last term and has decided to combine his love of a new sport with his desire to help children less fortunate than himself by raising money to buy laptops for the school. His initial target is £500 and any extra money will be spent on much-needed new equipment for the playground.

Hannah will be travelling to Uganda in March and will deliver the laptops to the school.

We are proud of Reuben's progress in rowing and his desire to support a very worthy cause – Good luck Reuben!
