

ATTENTION ALL GIRLS IN YEARS 3&4

St Catharine's College Girls Choir, Cambridge is looking for new members currently in year groups 3 and 4. Founded in 2008, the St Catharine's College Girls' Choir was the first college-based choir for girls in the UK. The choir provides a unique and invaluable musical experience for girls aged 8 to 15; with many girls going on to sing in choirs at University level and beyond. The choir sings weekly in the College Chapel, as well as giving regular concerts and its repertoire extends from the early Middle Ages to the 21st century, including music both sacred and secular.

Auditions take place on Sunday 5 July. For more information please visit www.caths.cam.ac.uk/girls-choir. To register, contact Dr Edward Wickham at music@caths.cam.ac.uk
