Library NEWSLETTER

Week of November 3rd

Book of the Week

Set in the beloved world of Percy Jackson, the pulsating first book in the Camp Half-Blood series sees a group of demigod children forced to brave the dangerous Wild Zone on a desperate rescue mission.

Non-Fiction November

This month we are putting the spotlight on the joy, value and world importance of factual reading by exploring our range of fantastic non-fiction books!

Library NEWSLETTER

Week of November 3rd

Year 8 Role Specific Prefects

We are delighted to announce the official appointment of our new Year 8 Role Specific Prefects for the upcoming academic year!

In their new roles, the team will be responsible for managing book displays, assisting at break times, and keeping our library space welcoming and orderly. Please join us in congratulating our new Year 8 cohort as they take on this important leadership responsibility and help foster a vibrant reading culture across the school.

Library NEWSLETTER

Week of November 3rd

Spooky Stories

Pupils had a ‘frightening’ time exploring spooky stories!

